Feline Adoption Application

Most adoptive kitties need an adjustment period to transition and settle into a new environment. There is no set amount of time that defines such a transition. I understand that it is my responsibility to spend ample time with my new cat to help them acclimate into their new home and to train them as necessary.

I understand that A Place for Grace Kitty Rescue cannot be held responsible for any damage an adopted cat may cause another animal, person or property.

I agree to pay the adoption fee to help defray the cost of standard feline medical tests, deworming, spay/neuter, distemper shot and nutritional needs incurred by A Place for Grace Kitty Rescue prior to adoption.

If you are no longer able to care for the kitty you adopted from A Place for Grace Kitty Rescue, you agree to contact us immediately to either return the animal to us or to discuss finding it a suitable new home. If a new home is found by you, you agree to notify A Place for Grace Kitty Rescue of the change.

I, the undersigned, (please print your name) _____
